PLAYING BINGO WITH SENIOR CITIZENS AT THE MANOR RESIDENCE

SWELLENDAM LIONS CLUB

Ons het voorheen berig oor die nuwe Lions, Philip en Liondame Esme Bromley, wat vanaf Port Shepstone na Swellendamklub oorgeplaas is.

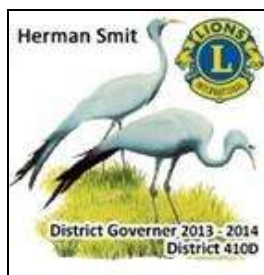

Hulle het albei reeds hulle staal gewys - beide Philip en Esme is baie betrokke by die Bingo en dan het Philip ook met die onlangse Big Bee gewys dat hy nie net die bingomasjientjie kan laat draai nie, maar dat hy ook sy plek agter die kroeg kan volstaan. Tussen hom en Theo Augustyn het hulle die kroeg gehanteer waar alles seepglad verloop het.

By 'n onlangse algemene vergadering het Philip die vlaggie van Port Shepstone aan Lions President Mike Saunders oorhandig en hierdie vlaggie pryk nou ook teen die klubhuis se muur.

Dit is lekker om sulke twee "afgetrede", maar nog aktiewe mense in jou klub by te kry!

Die Lions het onlangs 'n skenking van broodnodige voorraad aan Konstabel Geduld, betrokke by die Krisissentrum, gemaak. Dit was nogal skokkend om te verneem dat verkragtings nie net onder vrouens plaasvind nie, maar ook by kleiner seuntjies tot volwasse mans. U kan haar gerus kontak indien u meer besonderhede verlang en dalk ook by die Krisissentrum betrokke wil raak.

Toe Mike en Gail Saunders hulle op Swellendam kom vestig het, het niemand van ons besef watter groot impak hulle op 'n hele klompie mense se lewens met die Bingo sou maak nie. Bingo het altyd vir my soos 'n speletjie geklink waarvoor jy baie geld moes betaal en net op een van die MSC bote soos die Sinfonia of die Melody kon speel. Totdat hulle ons oortuig het dit kan anders werk en dat veral die ouer mense gaande is oor dit!

So gesê, so gedaan. Die bul is by die horings gepak en die inwoners van Huis AA Tomlinson was die proefkonlyne. Die wind was uit my seile. Hulle het dit so geniet dat ek na die eerste Bingodag eintlik vir Mike en Gail kwalik geneem het toe hulle oppak want ek kon sien hoe graag die mense langer sou wou speel. Agterna het ek toe ook maar net weer besef te veel van 'n goeie ding is nie goed nie. Daar is 'n tyd en 'n plek vir alles. Intussen het Bingo so gewild geword dat Philip en Esme Bromley nou net so betrokke is - daar word een maal per maand Bingo aangebied by Huis AA Tomlinson, Aan de Drostdy, die Reënboogklub en by die Silwerkruin Bejaardes op Buffeljagsrivier.

Dit is juis as gevolg van die genot en plesier wat Bingo verskaf dat Langeberg Hospice vir Mike en Gail genader het om betrokke te raak met hul fondsinsamelingsprojek op 7 September om 18:00 wanneer daar 'n Bingo-aand vir die publiek by Huis AA Tomlinson aangebied word. Die koste is R80.00 en daar gaan heerlike sop vir ete wees en u kan ook wonderlike pryse wen!

Daar word reeds fluks kaartjies deur die ander diensorganisasies ook verkoop en moet u gou spring om u plek by die Bingo-aand te verseker.

Ondersteun asseblief vir Hospice - u sal nie gou weer so 'n heerlike aand van ontspanning, pret en plesier vir slegs R80.00 op die lyf loop nie!

BINGO AAND 14 AUGUST 2013

Op 6 Augustus 2013 was die amptelike oorhandiging van die twee trompette wat alreeds 'n tyd gelede in gebruik geneem is - die geleentheid het hom nou eers voorgedoen om die oorhandiging behoorlik te doen.

Op die foto is Lions Barry Saaiman en Lion Theo Augustyn, die gewese President en in wie se termyn die trompette aangekoop is.

Ons vertrou dat hierdie trompette 'n waardevolle toevoeging tot die orkes sal wees en hoop ons om eendag die voorreg te hê om na hierdie klomp, talentvolle jong manne se musiek te kan luister

Met die onlangse Klub 100 trekking het die manne van Midas behoorlik gemaai onder die pryse. Lion Barry Saaiman het die 1ste prys weggeraap en Jan Hanekom het die 2de prys gewen. In die 3de plek was P H Joubert. Hartlik geluk aan hierdie 3 manne. Dit was die 9de trekking en met nog net 3 trekkings oor, kan ons nou al begin asem ophou vir die groot prysgeld.

Op die foto ontvang Lion Barry Saaiman sy prysgeld van Eduard Koch, die Fondsinsamelings Voorsitter.

President Mike Saunders se termyn het op 1 Julie 2013 in aanvang geneem en is onderstaande foto op die aand van sy eerste direksievergadering geneem.

Die span bestaan uit:

Agter:

SWELLENDAM LIONS CLUB – PEACE POSTER COMPETITION

Maandagaand 26 Augustus het die beoordeling by die Lions se klubhuis plaasgevind.

Verrassings was daar weer - soos altyd!

Die tema, OUR WORLD, OUR FUTURE, het die kinders behoorlik aan die dink gesit en het die eindresultaat geensins teleurgestel nie. Dit was aangrypend om te sien hoe elke kind dink - wat sy idee van die toekoms is, waarin hy/sy tans vasgevang is en hoe hulle 'n blink toekoms sien.

Elke jaar se inskrywings is van hoër gehalte. Dit is verblydend om te sien dat die inskrywings elke jaar meer word en het ons hierdie jaar 2 ekstra skole bygekry naamlik Olyfkrans Kollege en Esme Smit Private Art School. Ons staatmakers van die verlede, Bontebok Primêr, Swellendam Laerskool, Kluitjieskraal Primêr, Uitvlug Primêr, Kleinfontein Primêr, Mullersrus Primêr, Suurbraak Primêr en Laerskool Buffeljagsrivier het almal weer hul kant gebring en met spogwerke vorendag gekom. Baie dankie aan die vier beoordeelaars, Liekie Smal, Esme Smit, Nicolene Fritz en Karen du Toit vir julle insette.

Die wenposters is reeds in Port Elizabeth en sal ons eersdaags weet wie ons streek se wenner is. Baie dankie aan elke onderwyser, koördineerder by die skole en Lionslede wat die skakel met die skole was,

Nou moet ons net geduldig wag om te hoor.....
